

AMATEUR REINSTATEMENT FORM

If a player holds professional status and wishes to register as an amateur with an amateur club/team/league in the United States, the player is required to go through the amateur reinstatement process prior to registration with amateur club/team/league can be approved. Amateur reinstatements will be processed for any player who meet the following criteria:

- Last registered as a professional, either in the United States or internationally
- U.S. Soccer presently holds the player's international transfer certificate (ITC)
- Player's last game as a professional played at least over thirty (30) days ago

There is a $50 amateur reinstatement fee per application which will be processed once Player Status reviews the required documents and confirms all criteria are met. If the player's last game as a professional is over one (1) year at time of amateur reinstatement request and, after Player Status confirmation, payment will not be processed.
