

US SOCCER NATIONAL APPEALS COMMITTEE

WHAT CASES CAN BE APPEALED

1. After a hearing, a player is found guilty of referee abuse and suspended from all state association activities for a year.

THIS MAY BE APPEALED

2. A team is denied entry into a cup or league due to not meeting the entry deadline.

THIS MAY NOT BE APPEALED

# 3. A club disciplines a girl more harshly than it has ever done against boys accused of the same violation.

THIS MAY BE APPEALED

4. A club enforces strict rules for membership that are not discriminatory.

MAY NOT BE APPEALED

5. A club has a set of very specific transfer rules, but makes exceptions.

MAY BE APPEALED

6. A team is denied entry into a cup or league because its coach is serving a suspension.

MAY BE APPEALED

7. A club has a rule that you do not like.

MAY NOT BE APPEALED

# 8. You believe the election of club officers was in violation of the rules.

MAY NOT BE APPEALED

9. You receive a letter saying: "Coach Laraba, at the club meeting last night, it was decided to suspend you from coaching for 2 years."

MAY BE APPEALED

10. A covered person is given a hearing and suspended but, argues that the notice or hearing was not fair.

MAY BE APPEALED

#11 After a hearing a coach or player is suspended from league play for the rest of the season.

MAY NOT BE APPEALED

#12 After a hearing a coach or player is suspended from league play and State Cup.

MAY BE APPEALED

#13 A player is suspended by a club, but the state association reverses. The club asks to appeal the state decision.

MAY NOT BE APPEALED

This is not a comprehensive list.
This is a guide to help you understand the jurisdiction of the USSF
National Appeals
Committee